

Clopay Canyon Ridge

Marathon Door is please to announce the latest product innovation from Clopay Building Products. The Canyon Ridge Collection is a line of faux wood doors made using state of the art green technology melded with old world stylings. The highly insulated, maintenance free doors have an authentic rustic wood appearance The eco-friendly material is used to replicate many historically accurate carriagehouse door designs to achieve a unique blend of past, present and future. Click the following link for more information. www.clopaydoor.com/canyonridge.aspx

Feel free to contact our sales staff for more information on this exciting product line